

Executives in the Department of Work in Alaska

| | |
|-----------|--|
| 1924-1932 | - Dr. Andrew J. Montgomery, Director in the Town and Country Department (resigned in 1932 because of cut in budget) |
| 1932-1939 | - John M. Somerndike (Died March 14, 1939) |
| 1939-1943 | - Dr. Everett B. King (Began Sept. 1, 1939. Resigned Oct. 31, 1943) |
| 1944- | - Dr. J. Earl Jackman (Began Jan. 1, 1944) |

Notes:

Dr. Montgomery was a Director (and later called Secretary) in the Department of Town and Country Work. Dr. Warren H. Wilson was also a Director in the same Department. I do not see any mention of Dr. Montgomery specifically being in charge of the Alaskan Work in the annual reports, but I remember it, and checked with Frieda and Erma and both remember too. I also found a mimeographed paper in his folder which reads: "No one knows more about work in lumber, oil, and mining camps, the Mormon area, and the territory of Alaska, than Dr. A. J. Montgomery, Director in the Town and Country Department of the Presbyterian Board of National Missions." (Just called Miss Wendel and she too remembers).
